Part 1 What's It Like To Be In The Military	Information and/or personal testimony	1) Military Chaplain, or 2) Minister and veteran (or veteran's spouse)	Minister or veteran or veteran's spouse.	Power point presentation: Title 1	N/A	Essential part of Bridge Builder Kit intended to let UUs peer into military life, how/why people join, and their military experiences. This will reveal differences/similarities among current veterans, Viet Nam, Korea, and WW II veterans.
Part 2 What's It Like To Be Military In Unitarian Universalism	Information and/or personal testimony	1) Military Chaplain, or 2) Minister and veteran (or veteran's spouse)	Minister or veteran or veteran's spouse.	Power point presentation: Title 2	N/A	Essential part of the Bridge Builder Kit intended to let congregations become aware of how military personnel may be valuable members of a congregation, how a congregation can begin to assess itself, and why military members may seek a spiritual community.
Part 3 Small Group Discussion	Personal testimony, personal reflection, and reflection on congregation's needs/offerings.	Military chaplain or minister	Minister or veteran or veteran's spouse.	Reading for discussion from Bridge Builder Resource kit	Consider personal testimony from within the congregation.	This part of the Bridge Builder Kit may take many different forms. It should be tailored to assessing your congregation's desires and abilities regarding how invitational you are and what ministry you might offer to military personnel. How ever it is done, this essential part of the kit explores the grounding, fit, accountability and opportunity in your particular congregation. It should reveal what you can do next.
Worship Service	Consolidate issues raised in the above programs and recast around abiding human and UU experience in a worship service.	Military chaplain, minister, veteran, or veteran's spouse.				This part of the service is an excellent opportunity to blend personal and public ministry for your congregants and for UUism as a whole.
Facilitator's Guide	Prepare co-facilitators to present the Bridge Builder Kit.			Military chaplain assigned by CLF		If you will be presenting any portion of the Bridge Builder Kit, please review this material.
