CLF Mission Statement

Our mission is to build a global spiritual community, rooted in profound love, that cultivates wonder, imagination and the courage to act.

As Unitarian Universalists, we carry the flame of love, burning bright, for all who yearn for its warmth and light.

CLF Membership Covenant

As we come together in community, it is important to clarify group values and expectations. We seek to create a safe and welcoming place and will operate under the following principles whether we are online or offline:

- Respect – Our overarching value will be one of respect for self and others as well as for people and ideas we may disagree with. We will value the worth and dignity of all people.
- Tolerance and Appreciation of Diversity – We will seek to operate under a "both/and" rather than an "either/or" philosophy (i.e., we will honor others' paths and welcome differences).
- Compassion – Ours is a congregation with a spirit of caring and support. We will seek to encourage and lift one another up—especially in difficult times.
- Accountability – We will lovingly hold each other accountable to these shared values.

Household membership continued on back →

Like all churches, the CLF relies on the support of its members to sustain its programs and outreach. An annual donation of at least $50 (for individuals) or $75 (for households) is a requirement of CLF membership, and we gratefully accept larger donations in any amount. Some people like to give every month to make it easier to budget, and others prefer to give a yearly donation all at once.

The CLF encourages you to become a sustaining member by setting up automatic monthly or quarterly contributions on the CLF website at clfuu.org/give

If donating is a financial hardship, please know that our websites are always available to you at no cost.

We want to be your spiritual home!

CLF prohibits the use of our mailing list by fundraising organizations.

As a member of a UU congregation, you may receive notices for conferences, gatherings, or district activities.
